KSAS Weekly

January 6th-10th, 2020

Lifelong Guideline Focus:

Integrity

To act according to a sense of what's right and wrong.

Band

Sue Biggs will begin band for interested 4th and 5th graders on Tuesday, January 7th. If you are interested, please attend, even if you do not have an instrument yet. Please see the attached for more details.

Winter Gear

Kindly send your child in with gear appropriate for the weather. Also, to ensure gear makes it home LABEL all gear, including; jackets, gloves, hats, snow pants, boots.

Cold and Flu Season

With cold and flu season here, please make sure to keep sick children at home to prevent spreading illness to others. Also, continue to wash surfaces and encourage covering coughs and sneezes, as well as proper handwashing. Working together on this will help to keep everyone healthy.

Volunteering

In order to volunteer in classrooms or attend study trips, a background check must be completed, along with our volunteer contract. To sign up, go to the Kaleidoscope webpage and follow the link. Once you have completed this portion, stop by the office to read and sign the KSAS volunteer guidelines.
